What's new in Elden Ring:

The elves that inhabit the Lands Between have been ordered to protect the human settlement at Venlet's Fort in the Rune and Chaos Talu Mountains. In this anonymous human village lives Demmet Law, the sole survivor of the Dead Island Cult. He is the source of the extreme magical backlash that caused their tragedy. However, unknown to the elves, Demmet Law decided to become an even more powerful undead being. As he gathers the power of the dead, he becomes the force by which the Underworld fairy races may travel as one. He has been set to confront the Godswar King in the Lands Beyond, as if summoned to his destiny by the gods. The elves will not interfere in the conflict between the god and the military leader, but as their shoulders are being raised, these elves will join the god's party in order to remove the undead Demmet Law, the possible threat to the human race.

With the end of the Gods and Warper Awakening arc behind it, the Empire of Blood has taken a new form as the Empire of Blood & Chaos.
