The co-op event (route available here) is being held in Mieścisko, Poland and the trail can be found here. Only 34 events took place and the routes were sorted in such a way that smaller roads and gravel trails would be used. This year, the co-op organiser partnered with GO-WAVES (a non-profit organisation with the mission to promote bicycle tourism in Poland) and BCT. I'm personally a fan of the event, it provides you with an opportunity to meet up with other riders, the chance to meet and ride with a caravan, and also to learn about and experience the different places visited along the route. Mieścisko is the final host of the event and situated in the beautiful hills of the Wawa Valley. It's a bit isolated (there's a couple of hotels but they are quite expensive) and is only a 10-15 minute bus ride from Gdansk. It's also the start of the Wawa Valley trail which will take the cyclists through some beautiful countryside. The route Day 1 After breakfast and checking in the hotel we set out around 7:45am to start the day, the caravan would be leaving at 8:30am. The first day&#65533;
