Here are my notes on the first data science course I took. These are notes from the SDSMC-Houston course. They are my own personal notes and notes taken in the course. I may edit them as needed. The presentation slides can be found under the code link on the wiki. The course has a great amount of links to deeper reading and viewing of course materials. The course is most lenient on any tech skill and I was quite surprised when I came across this. I felt it was well designed and implemented. Here are the links to the course material.
